IN PLAN TO SQUEEZE CHINA

QUESTION OF INDEMNITY DELAYS SETTLEMENT.

UNITED STATES HOLDS FIRM

WILL NOT BE DRIVEN OUT OF CONCERT OF POWERS.

Washington, Nov. 20—The Chinese situation was the main topic under consideration at today's cabinet meeting.

The administration is not disposed to join with the other governments in making demands upon the Chinese imperial authorities which the Chinese government cannot comply with.

So far as our government is advised, the foreign ministers at Pekin have not yet agreed upon all points under discussion. Mr. Conger has reported from time to time the various propositions under consideration, but he has not yet indicated that the end is at hand or that anything in the nature of an agreement has been reached upon which the various powers might act, and which is to serve as a basis of negotiation with the Chinese authorities.

Mr. Conger has not, however, been heard from for a week, and this fact has caused some discouragement to the officials who expected that this phase of the difficult Chinese question would soon be closed.

Having passed over the stage of proscription of the Chinese leaders who were responsible for the boxer outrages, the foreign ministers are believed now to be engaged with the difficult subjects of indemnities and guarantees.

The last United States proposition was in line with the Russian project to allow the Hague commissioners to adjust the indemnities.

It is believed that this proposition has never commended itself to the British or the German government, and failing such a reference of the question of indemnity, it is believed that it will be a most difficult task for the ministers at Pekin to reach an agreement on this subject, particularly in view of the existence of a very strong suspision of the motives of some of these ministers.

This apparent difference in original purpose between the United States government and some of the other powers have operated to prevent a settlement of the Chinese question upon the broad lines laid down in the state department's proposition. It is true that all of the powers subscribed a more or less reluctant assent to such proposals as look to the prevention of the partition of China and the guarantee of an "open door" to all comers, yet it begins to appear from the course of the negotiations that either these promises were not sincere in all cases or that some of the makers honestly have changed their minds as to what shall be done for the present in China.

It may be stated, however, regardless of the embarrassments and delays that follow from the existence of this state of affairs, that the United States government does not propose to be driven out of the concert relative to China at this juncture in the negotiations; for, notwithstanding the wish cherished by the administration to free the government from these entanglements at the earliest possible moment, and in the desire to withdraw entirely our military froces from China, it has definitely been determined that this shall not be done until all proper interests of the United States in China have been conserved.

BROAD VIEWS IN FRANCE.

Paris, Nov. 20.—The debate on the budget for the ministry of foreign affairs was continued in the chamber of deputies today.

M. Denis Cochin, conservative, representing one of the districts of the Seine, during the course of a speech, pronounced himself in favor of upholding the honor of France and of the French troops in China.

M. Lucien Millevoye, nationalist republican, representing a Seine district, said he considered it necessary to maintain a large, expeditionary force in China.

The minister of foreign affairs, M. Delcasse, explained at length the origin of the force necessary to relieve the foreign legations at Pekin. In so doing he referred to the heroism displayed in the defense of the legations and declared the accusations of cruelty against the French and international troops were unfounded.

He added:

"The eight powers have met in an attempt to reconcile their interests and claims, all of them wishing to respect the integrity and even the independence of China. Special claims must be shunned. It is necessary to inspire ideas for the general benefit."

Continuing, M. Delcasse traced the submission of the French, not as the basis of the negotiations, and said it was not necessary to obtain a guarantee for the future against similar deeds or attempts.

The foreign minister then said:

"Every one desires to end the situation. No one will think of diminishing the strength of our forces in China until the conflict is ended. The chamber may rest assured that the government will neglect nothing to conclude it. But it needs the confidence of the chamber."

MINE WILL YIELD DIVIDENDS

STRATTON'S INDEPENDENCE IS NOT WORKED OUT.

John Hays Hammond is Making an Investigation for the English Stockholders.

Denver, Col., Nov. 20.—John Hays Hammond, the mining engineer, has been asked by the English stockholders of Stratton's Independence mine to take charge of the mine as consulting engineer.

He is now in Victor to make a thorough investigation of the property. Regarding the recent heavy fall in the price of the shares, he said:

"The trouble with the mine now is that it has been squeezed to pay the big dividends that the company promised shareholders. The state of affairs has just become known to the English holders of the shares and the information has caused the present drop in the stock."

Mr. Hammond denied that there has been any stock jobbing in the matter and intimated the belief that the mine can yet be put upon a dividend paying basis. He said he will only take hold of the mine if given absolute control of the property, with all the powers of a board of directors.

Winfield S. Stratton, when questioned regarding the present condition of the Independence mine, sold by him to an English syndicate, said:

"I am not in the company and have not been for months. It is my opinion, however, that the property has been worked too hard. The management has simply made a mistake in what it thought the property could do. I a m satisfied that the Venture corporation is absolutely honest in the handling of the stock company."

The opinion of Cripple Creek mining men generally is that the London company has neglected to do the necessary development work and has drawn too heavily upon the ore reserves for the purpose of paying large dividends.

Thomas F. Walsh, owner of the Camp Bird mine, said today regarding the Independence:

"The property was no doubt worth all that was paid for it by the English investors and the management in Colorado is not responsible for taking out the reserves at such a wholesale rate. First-class mines are developed constantly as the ore is taken out."

CAMP BIRD SALE OFF.

Denver, Col., Nov. 20.—The projected sale of the Camp Bird gold mine at Ouray to an English syndicate has been declared off.

"The property will not be sold," said the owner, Thomas F. Walsh, who has just arrived here from Paris.

"Had the prospective buyers been ready to pay over $7,000,000 cash when the deal was first talked of, it is probable the mine would have passed into their possession. Now I have decided to retain possession of the mine."

CHURCH ELECTION.

Dr. H. W. Niswonger and J. B. Merillat were elected as elders and W. H. Meyers as deacon at the annual meeting of the official board of Christ's Evangelical Lutheran church Monday evening. Reports for the year show a gratifying progress for the year both financially and in membership, where the increase has been about 33 per cent. The church debt has been reduced $400 and has been strengthened in various ways.

WANT BETTER LAW

INTER-STATE COMMERCE ACT UNDER DISCUSSION.

MERCANTILE MEN IN SESSION

TALK OF AMENDMENTS AT ST. LOUIS MEETING.

LAW IMPOTENT AT PRESENT

FEDERAL OWNERSHIP SENTIMENT FOSTERED BY IT.

St. Louis, Nov. 20.—The League of the National Association of Industrial and Commercial Organizations assembled here today for the purpose of discussing and formulating plans to secure the early passage by congress of the Cullom bill, which seeks to amend the inter-state commerce law and extend the powers of that body.

This bill is now on the calendar of the senate and the association proposes endeavoring to use its influence for the purpose of having the bill advanced on the calendar.

President E. A. Beacon, of Milwaukee, called the meeting to order.

Secretary Barry, speaking of the purpose of the meeting said:

"The action of the convention will be simply in the line of giving evidence to congress of the strong demand throughout the country for the passage of the Cullom bill, and to arrange for a delegation to go to Washington in the interest of the bill.

"The opposition to the new measure on the part of the railroads is due to the fact that they realize that the inter-state commerce law, in its present form, is impotent—the findings of the commission cannot be put in force.

"There is another reason for the passage of the Cullom bill at this session. If it goes over there is a possibility of the repeal of the existing law, owing to its unsatisfactory working in its present form. And if it is repealed an impetus will be given to the theory of government control, which is gaining friends under the present unsatisfactory law. We all realize that there must be government control of common carriers, but government ownership is another thing."

Former Gov. E. O. Stanard, of Missouri, was unanimously made presiding officer. In taking the gavel he said: "What the people of the country want is either an inter-state commerce commission with the power to act, or the repeal of the law under which it came into being. Under present conditions, with the railroads discriminating, for instance, in favor of wheat, which can be shipped to Europe at a lower rate than flour, the millers of Germany and England can turn out with our grain a product cheaper than we can put in the market there. The farmers in this country must be looked after, but the interests of thousands and tens of thousands of manufacturers should also be cared for."

Committees were appointed and a recess was taken until afternoon.

When the committee on resolutions convened it developed that there was some opposition to the purpose for which the meeting was called.

When Chairman Bacon presented for adoption a memorial to congress, urging the passage of the Cullum bill E. C. Simmons, of this city, declared he was opposed to the stated purpose of the meeting and withdrew from the committee.

THE REPORT CONFIRMED.

New York, Nov. 20.—Passengers on board the steamer Advance, which arrived here today from Colon, confirm the reports of the seizure of the British steamer Taboga at Colon. The rebels threatened to blockade the port of Buenaventura, and the government vessel had broken down. They seized the Taboga to transfer troops to Buenaventura. An offer of $15,000 was made for the vessel prior to seizure. The government is quite willing to pay an indemnity, but was unwilling to risk awaiting other means of transport.

NAVAL INVENTOR DIES.

New York, Nov. 20.—Lieut. Francis Joy Haeseler, U. S. N., died at the Naval hospital here today of typhoid fever. Lieutenant Haeseler was eminent as an electrician and was an expert in the application of compressed air in mechanics. In the battle of Santiago, which resulted in the destruction of Cervera's fleet, Lieutenant Haeseler was in charge of the starboard turret of the battleship Texas and earned high praise for the manner in which his guns were served. Lieutenant Haeseler made the twelve-inch guns of the Texas rapid-firers by improving the methods of loading, so that the charge carried the gun in any direction, whereas the gun had formerly to be returned to one position before recharging. He made is safer to handle big guns by altering the electric firing systems so that a gun could not be discharged until the breech-lock had beencompletely closed. Recently he had invented several clever and simple breech locks, which are being tested at Indian Head.

GIRLS ON STRIKE

TROUBLE AT THE PARAGON WAIST FACTORY.

TWO HUNDRED WALKED OUT

REFUSING TO GO TO WORK THIS MORNING.

WAGE QUESTION IS AT ISSUE

OTHER DEPARTMENTS ARE YET AT WORK.

Two hundred girls who have been employed at the Paragon Shirt Waist factory on East Columbia street are out on a strike, and say they are determined not to return to work until their demands for an increase in the wage scale are adjusted.

The walk-out occurred at 9 o'clock this morning and the striking forces comprise nearly all the girls who have been employed in making the bodies of waists. There is said to be no trouble in other departments of the big factory, and they are working as usual, though the institution is seriously crippled by the absence of the girls who quit this morning. Only a few of the force of girls in the body-rooms remained at work.

MARCHED DOWN STREET.

The ation of the girls this morning was quiet, concerted and orderly. On reaching the factory they declined to go to work until the arrival of Manager MacDougal, and awaited him in the lower rooms of the factory. When he arrived the girls say he declined to grant the advance in price they had previously asked, and told those who did not desire to go to work to go home.

About two hundred girls, comprising a vast majority of the body-makers and about two-thirds of the entire number of employes of the entire factory, quietly donned their wraps and left the building. In a solid phalanx they marched down Columbia street to Calhoun and thence south on that thoroughfare escorting several of their number to their homes on the south side.

The trouble arose over the question of wages to be paid the body-makers for some of the cheaper varieties of the new style waists for next season's trade, and it first came to the surface on Saturday.

WANT MORE MONEY.

The girls say the whole difficulty is due to the fact that the prices fixed for the manufacture of the new styles of waists are not sufficient to enable them to make fair wages. The manufacture of these goods has just commenced. Styles change radically with the seasons, and at the opening of the season's work it is customary for the management to fix a price per dozen for the manufacture of each particular style, based upon the amount of labor required on each garment.

It is said the collar girls were the first to go to the management with their grievance, asking 25 cents per dozen for the work. This grievance was adjusted by the factory agreeing to pay 20 cents per dozen and to do the creasing of collars. This was accepted as a compromise and the collar girls are at work.

The girls who make the bodies say they were not so successful in securing an advance, and hence the strike this morning. They say that for the three particular styles of waists upon which objection is based to the price, the factory offered 63, 68 and 70 cents respectively, and that they ask 65, 70 and 75 cents for the work.

WAS TALKED MONDAY.

Monday they say several committees visited the management with a request for this advance, but were in each case unsuccessful. The girls worked until nearly 5 o'clock Monday evening, and as they were leaving the building the manager called them back and addressed them at some length, saying he would consider the matter further. This morning they waited for the answer before beginning work, and as it was unfavorable the force simply left the building.

The girls stoutly maintain their position, and say they will not resume work until the difference is adjusted. Today they are strongly talking of organizing, and it is possible a meeting will be called for this purpose.

LOOKS FOR ADJUSTMENT.

Manager M. C. MacDougal, of the Paragon company, greeted The Sentinel reporter pleasantly, but was not inclined to talk concerning the trouble. "Yes, we have had a strike," said Mr. MacDougal, "and it was the change in the styles of work that caused the trouble. We have always paid good prices and treated our girls fairly, and the present prices were figured on the same basis as were those of last year. We have a good supply of orders on hand, and I did not expect any difficulty of this kind. I believe, however, that matters will adjust themselves in the course of a few days."

IGNORED THE INDICTMENTS.

Philadelphia, Nov. 20.—The United States grand jury today ignored the bills of indictment against Isaac A. Sweigard, former superintendent of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway company, who was charged by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen with having discharged employes of the Reading company because they were members of the brotherhood. The offense alleged constituted a violation of the act of congress of June 1, 1898, and the charge was by the president of the brotherhood, Valentine Fitzpatrick, whose headquarters are at Cleveland.

THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS

L. B. M'ELHENNEY ACCEPTS THE FRANCHISE.

The Life of the Franchise is Limited to Fifty Years and Fares are Fixed at Four Cents.

Mr. L. B. McElhenney, of Dayton, Ohio, yesterday afternoon signed the contract with the city for an interurban franchise on South Calhoun street. The life of the franchise is fifty years and the board of works reserves the right to grant a second franchise on the same street if deemed advisible. The company is compelled to give a bond to save the city harmless and must keep the space between its tracks and for twelve inches on each side of the tracks in the same condition as to paving as is the balance of the street. The fare for adults is fixed at 5 cents and it is stipulated that the conductors must keep on hand a supply of tickets to be sold six for 25 cents or twenty-five for $1. The company must keep on deposit in the city $100 with which repairs can be made provided the company is too slow with the work. One car must run each hour from 5 a. m. until 12 midnight, and the road must be completed and in operation by April 1, 1902, or the franchise is forfeited. The board made no demand for compensation to the city inasmuch as the franchise occupies only about eight squares of streets. The contract now goes to the city council for ratification.

The Home Telephone company asked for the right to extend its underground conduit system in the alley between Wayne and Washington streets, from its present terminus at Barr street to a point fifteen feet east of Lafayette, to the cable pole. The board granted the petition, but stipulated that the work should not be done prior to April 1, as if done now the alley would be impassable during the bad weather of the winter.

A deed of a strip of land near North Side park to John H. Bass and Fred Helling, as compensation for land given to make possible the widening of Clinton street, was approved by the board and sent to the mayor and council for approval.

NEW SORT OF RESTAURANT.

A vegetarian restaurant is among the immediate probabilities in Fort Wayne if the plans of G. W. Mann, of this city, are given sufficient encouragement. Mr. Mann's idea is a purely health food restaurant, dispensing with every variety of animal fats and substituting the nut preparations. He has been in conference with a number of prominent vegetarians of the city and is of the opinion that such an institution would succeed from the start.

TALK OF A BOWLING LEAGUE.

Members of the Tippecanoe club are considering the proposition to organize a bowling league from its membership and inaugurate a series of games during the winter months. It is probable about six teams will be organized and a schedule arranged similar to those of the professional base ball teams. The Tips will give a smoker and pedro party on Thursday evening.

PROSTRATED BY HEAT.

New York, Nov. 20.—Minnie Adams, a clerk in the potsoffice, was overcome by the heat while at work today. She was attended by a physician and was able to return to her home.

LIFE SNUFFED OUT

CHARLES LIEBIG MEETS DEATH THIS AFTERNOON.

HE WAS OVERCOME BY DAMPS

FELL LIFELESS TO THE BOTTOM OF A WELL.

SAD AFFAIR ON TAM STREET

POLICE REMOVE THE REMAINS FROM THE WELL.

Charles Liebig, a mason well advanced in years, met death by damps in a well at his residence at the corner of Tam and Winter streets, shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The well in which Liebig lost his life was an old-fashioned dug well which had gone dry, and with the aid of two neighbors Liebig started this afternoon to clean out the well. A windlass was used and Liebig stepped into the bucket to be lowered into the well. When but a part of the way down Liebig discovered "damps" in the well and called to his companions to bring him to the surface.

Before this could be done the noxious gas overcame the unfortunate man. His hands released their grasp upon the rope and he plunged to the bottom of the well. The terrified spectators who soon gathered were powerless to aid the unconscious man and a hurried call was sent for the police ambulance and grappling apparatus.

Liebig expired almost the moment his body touched the bottom of the well, and the remains were later recovered by the police with the grappling hooks. Coroner Barnett was called and left for the scene at 2:30 o'clock.

Liebig was 57 years of age. The two men manipulating the windlass were Bernhard Obitz and Tony Sellers. It is said the well was tested for damps before Liebig was lowered into the well, and though the lights went out, thus showing the presence of the poisonous gas, Liebig insisted upon making the descent, and also declined to be tied fast to the rope.

Liebig fell a distance of at least thirty feet to the quicksand bottom of the well, and Coroner Barnett is of the opinion that his death was almost instantaneous. It required about twenty minutes' work upon the part of the police with the grappling hooks to raise the body of the unfortunate man.

Liebig leaves a widow and four children—Emil Liebig, a brakeman on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad; Henry Liebig, a Pennsylvania brakeman, Mrs. John Sheehan and Miss Edith Liebig.

TO CULTIVATE RUBBER.

Some time ago it was announced that Fort ayne gentlemen had secured a grant of 600 acres of land in the province of Vera Cruz, Mex., and would enter upon the cultivation of rubber trees. Arrangements are now complete for the incorporation of the Mexican Plantation company, with a capital stock of $10,000, and the directors are H. A. Sprague, president; J. H. Orr, secretary and treasurer, and B. F. Harper, attorney. One hundred acres of the land will be put under cultivation in various short crops to yield an income from the start, and the balance of the land will be planted with 125,000 rubber trees. Much of the capital stock has already been subscribed, but no certificates will be issued until the first crop is ready to harvest.

THE DIVINE SARA ARRIVES.

New York, Nov. 20.—Madame Sara Bernhardt and M. Constant Coquelin and their large company of actors arrived here today on L'Aquitaine. The vessel had a rough trip, meeting heavy seas all the way across. Madame Bernhardt, who looked to be in the best of health, said she was glad to revisit this country, as she expects to write a great deal of America in her memoirs, which she is now preparing. The actress denied that Rosland was insane and asserted that the stories to that effect had been circulated by the author's enemies.

FOOD COMMISSIONERS MEET.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 20.—The fourth annual convention of the National Association of Dairy and Food Departments of the United States opened here this afternoon with about thirty delegates in attendance. The feature of the opening session was the president's address, presented by Acting President George L. Flanders, of New York.

WILL HOLD ALOOF

UNITED STATES WILL NOT JOIN THE OTHER POWERS

IN PLAN TO SQUEEZE CHINA

QUESTION OF INDEMNITY DELAYS SETTLEMENT.

UNITED STATES HOLDS FIRM

WILL NOT BE DRIVEN OUT OF CONCERT OF POWERS.

Washington, Nov. 20—The Chinese situation was the main topic under consideration at today's cabinet meeting.

The administration is not disposed to join with the other governments in making demands upon the Chinese imperial authorities which the Chinese government cannot comply with.

So far as our government is advised, the foreign ministers at Pekin have not yet agreed upon all points under discussion. Mr. Conger has reported from time to time the various propositions under consideration, but he has not yet indicated that the end is at hand or that anything in the nature of an agreement has been reached upon which the various powers might act, and which is to serve as a basis of negotiation with the Chinese authorities.

Mr. Conger has not, however, been heard from for a week, and this fact has caused some discouragement to the officials who expected that this phase of the difficult Chinese question would soon be closed.

Having passed over the stage of proscription of the Chinese leaders who were responsible for the boxer outrages, the foreign ministers are believed now to be engaged with the difficult subjects of indemnities and guarantees.

The last United States proposition was in line with the Russian project to allow the Hague commissioners to adjust the indemnities.

It is believed that this proposition has never commended itself to the British or the German government, and failing such a reference of the question of indemnity, it is believed that it will be a most difficult task for the ministers at Pekin to reach an agreement on this subject, particularly in view of the existence of a very strong suspision of the motives of some of these ministers.

This apparent difference in original purpose between the United States government and some of the other powers have operated to prevent a settlement of the Chinese question upon the broad lines laid down in the state department's proposition. It is true that all of the powers subscribed a more or less reluctant assent to such proposals as look to the prevention of the partition of China and the guarantee of an "open door" to all comers, yet it begins to appear from the course of the negotiations that either these promises were not sincere in all cases or that some of the makers honestly have changed their minds as to what shall be done for the present in China.

It may be stated, however, regardless of the embarrassments and delays that follow from the existence of this state of affairs, that the United States government does not propose to be driven out of the concert relative to China at this juncture in the negotiations; for, notwithstanding the wish cherished by the administration to free the government from these entanglements at the earliest possible moment, and in the desire to withdraw entirely our military forces from China, it has definitely been determined that this shall not be done until all proper interests of the United States in China have been conserved.

BROAD VIEWS IN FRANCE.

Paris, Nov. 20.—The debate on the budget for the ministry of foreign affairs was continued in the chamber of deputies today.

M. Denis Cochin, conservative, representing one of the districts of the Seine, during the course of a speech, pronounced himself in favor of upholding the honor of France and of the French troops in China.

M. Lucien Millevoye, nationalist republican, representing a Seine district, said he considered it necessary to maintain a large, expeditionary force in China.

The minister of foreign affairs, M. Delcasse, explained at length the origin of the force necessary to relieve the foreign legations at Pekin. In so doing he referred to the heroism displayed in the defense of the legations and declared the accusations of cruelty against the French and international troops were unfounded.

He added:

"The eight powers have met in an attempt to reconcile their interests and claims, all of them wishing to respect the integrity and even the independence of China. Special claims must be shunned. It is necessary to inspire ideas for the general benefit."

Continuing, M. Delcasse traced the submission of the French, not as the basis of the negotiations, and said it was not necessary to obtain a guarantee for the future against similar deeds or attempts.

The foreign minister then said:

"Every one desires to end the situation. No one will think of diminishing the strength of our forces in China until the conflict is ended. The chamber may rest assured that the government will neglect nothing to conclude it. But it needs the confidence of the chamber."

MINE WILL YIELD DIVIDENDS

STRATTON'S INDEPENDENCE IS NOT WORKED OUT.

John Hays Hammond is Making an Investigation for the English Stockholders.

Denver, Col., Nov. 20.—John Hays Hammond, the mining engineer, has been asked by the English stockholders of Stratton's Independence mine to take charge of the mine as consulting engineer.

He is now in Victor to make a thorough investigation of the property. Regarding the recent heavy fall in the price of the shares, he said:

"The trouble with the mine now is that it has been squeezed to pay the big dividends that the company promised shareholders. The state of affairs has just become known to the English holders of the shares and the information has caused the present drop in the stock."

Mr. Hammond denied that there has been any stock jobbing in the matter and intimated the belief that the mine can yet be put upon a dividend paying basis. He said he will only take hold of the mine if given absolute control of the property, with all the powers of a board of directors.

Winfield S. Stratton, when questioned regarding the present condition of the Independence mine, said by him to an English syndicate, said:

"I am not in the company and have not been for months. It is my opinion, however, that the property has been worked too hard. The management has simply made a mistake in what it thought the property could do. I am satisfied that the Venture corporation is absolutely honest in the handling of the stock company."

The opinion of Cripple Creek mining men generally is that the London company has neglected to do the necessary development work and has drawn too heavily upon the ore reserves for the purpose of paying large dividends.

Thomas F. Walsh, owner of the Camp Bird mine, said today regarding the Independence:

"The property was no doubt worth all that was paid for it by the English investors and the management in Colorado is not responsible for taking out the reserves at such a wholesale rate. First-class mines are developed constantly as the ore is taken out."

CAMP BIRD SALE OFF.

Denver, Col., Nov. 20.—The projected sale of the Camp Bird gold mine at Ouray to an English syndicate has been declared off.

"The property will not be sold," said the owner, Thomas F. Walsh, who has just arrived here from Paris.

"Had the prospective buyers been ready to pay over $7,000,000 cash when the deal was first talked of, it is probable the mine would have passed into their possession. Now I have decided to retain possession of the mine."

CHURCH ELECTION.

Dr. H. W. Niswonger and J. B. Merillat were elected as elders and W. H. Meyers as deacon at the annual meeting of the official board of Christ's Evangelical Lutheran church Monday evening. Reports for the year show a gratifying progress for the year both financially and in membership, where the increase has been about 33 per cent. The church debt has been reduced $400 and has been strengthened in various ways.

WANT BETTER LAW

INTER-STATE COMMERCE ACT UNDER DISCUSSION.

MERCANTILE MEN IN SESSION

TALK OF AMENDMENTS AT ST. LOUIS MEETING.

LAW IMPOTENT AT PRESENT

FEDERAL OWNERSHIP SENTIMENT FOSTERED BY IT.

St. Louis, Nov. 20.—The League of the National Association of Industrial and Commercial Organizations assembled here today for the purpose of discussing and formulating plans to secure the early passage by congress of the Cullom bill, which seeks to amend the inter-state commerce law and extend the powers of that body.

This bill is now on the calendar of the senate and the association proposes endeavoring to use its influence for the purpose of having the bill advanced on the calendar.

President E. A. Beacon, of Milwaukee, called the meeting to order.

Secretary Barry, speaking of the purpose of the meeting said:

"The action of the convention will be simply in the line of giving evidence to congress of the strong demand throughout the country for the passage of the Cullom bill, and to arrange for a delegation to go to Washington in the interest of the bill.

"The opposition to the new measure on the part of the railroads is due to the fact that they realize that the inter-state commerce law, in its present form, is impotent—the findings of the commission cannot be put in force.

"There is another reason for the passage of the Cullom bill at this session. If it goes over there is a possibility of the repeal of the existing law, owing to its unsatisfactory working in its present form. And if it is repealed an impetus will be given to the theory of government control, which is gaining friends under the present unsatisfactory law. We all realize that there must be government control of common carriers, but government ownership is another thing."

Former Gov. E. O. Stanard, of Missouri, was unanimously made presiding officer. In taking the gavel he said: "What the people of the country want is either an inter-state commerce commission with the power to act, or the repeal of the law under which it came into being. Under present conditions, with the railroads discriminating, for instance, in favor of wheat, which can be shipped to Europe at a lower rate than flour, the millers of Germany and England can turn out with our grain a product cheaper than we can put in the market there. The farmers in this country must be looked after, but the interests of thousands and tens of thousands of manufacturers should also be cared for."

Committees were appointed and a recess was taken until afternoon.

When the committee on resolutions convened it developed that there was some opposition to the purpose for which the meeting was called.

When Chairman Bacon presented for adoption a memorial to congress, urging the passage of the Cullum bill E. C. Simmons, of this city, declared he was opposed to the stated purpose of the meeting and withdrew from the committee.

THE REPORT CONFIRMED.

New York, Nov. 20.—Passengers on board the steamer Advance, which arrived here today from Colon, confirm the reports of the seizure of the British steamer Taboga at Colon. The rebels threatened to blockade the port of Buenaventura, and the government vessel had broken down. They seized the Taboga to transfer troops to Buenaventura. An offer of $15,000 was made for the vessel prior to seizure. The government is quite willing to pay an indemnity, but was unwilling to risk awaiting other means of transport.

NAVAL INVENTOR DIES.

New York, Nov. 20.—Lieut. Francis Joy Haeseler, U. S. N., died at the Naval hospital here today of typhoid fever. Lieutenant Haeseler was eminent as an electrician and was an expert in the application of compressed air in mechanics. In the battle of Santiago, which resulted in the destruction of Cervera's fleet, Lieutenant Haeseler was in charge of the starboard turret of the battleship Texas and earned high praise for the manner in which his guns were served. Lieutenant Haeseler made the twelve-inch guns of the Texas rapid-firers by improving the methods of loading, so that the charge carried the gun in any direction, whereas the gun had formerly to be returned to one position before recharging. He made is safer to handle big guns by altering the electric firing systems so that a gun could not be discharged until the breech-lock had beencompletely closed. Recently he had invented several clever and simple breech locks, which are being tested at Indian Head.

President C. F. Diederich and Secretary A. B. Proal, of the Fort Wayne Gas company, arrived in the city from New York this evening and are guests at the Wayne hotel. With them also is Samuel Murdock, of Lafayette.

It has been known for some time that the officials were coming westward to make an investigation of the new pumping stations and new pipe lines installed in the field by the company during the past year, and it is probable this is the object of the present trip.

GIRLS ON STRIKE

TROUBLE AT THE PARAGON WAIST FACTORY.

TWO HUNDRED WALKED OUT

REFUSING TO GO TO WORK THIS MORNING.

WAGE QUESTION IS AT ISSUE

OTHER DEPARTMENTS ARE YET AT WORK.

Two hundred girls who have been employed at the Paragon Shirt Waist factory on East Columbia street are out on a strike, and say they are determined not to return to work until their demands for an increase in the wage scale are adjusted.

The walk-out occurred at 9 o'clock this morning and the striking forces comprise nearly all the girls who have been employed in making the bodies of waists. There is said to be no trouble in other departments of the big factory, and they are working as usual, though the institution is seriously crippled by the absence of the girls who quit this morning. Only a few of the force of girls in the body-rooms remained at work.

MARCHED DOWN STREET.

The ation of the girls this morning was quiet, concerted and orderly. On reaching the factory they declined to go to work until the arrival of Manager MacDougal, and awaited him in the lower rooms of the factory. When he arrived the girls say he declined to grant the advance in price they had previously asked, and told those who did not desire to go to work to go home.

About two hundred girls, comprising a vast majority of the bodymakers and about two-thirds of the entire number of employes of the entire factory, quietly donned their wraps and left the building. In a solid phalanx they marched down Columbia street to Calhoun and thence south on that thoroughfare escorting several of their number to their homes on the south side.

The trouble arose over the question of wages to be paid the body-makers for some of the cheaper varieties of the new style waists for next season's trade, and it first came to the surface on Saturday.

WANT MORE MONEY.

The girls say the whole difficulty is due to the fact that the prices fixed for the manufacture of the new styles of waists are not sufficient to enable them to make fair wages. The manufacture of these goods has just commenced. Styles change radically with the seasons, and at the opening of the season's work it is customary for the management to fix a price per dozen for the manufacture of each particular style, based upon the amount of labor required on each garment.

It is said the collar girls were the first to go to the management with their grievance, asking 25 cents per dozen for the work. This grievance was adjusted by the factory agreeing to pay 20 cents per dozen and to do the crensing of collars. This was accepted as a compromise and the collar girls are at work.

The girls who make the bodies say they were not so successful in securing an advance, and hence the strike this morning. They say that for the three particular styles of waists upon which objection is based to the price, the factory offered 63, 68 and 70 cents respectively, and that they ask 65, 70 and 75 cents for the work.

WAS TALKED MONDAY.

Monday they say several committees visited the management with a request for this advance, but were in each case unsuccessful. The girls worked until nearly 5 o'clock Monday evening, and as they were leaving the building the manager called them back and addressed them at some length, saying he would consider the matter further. This morning they waited for the answer before beginning work, and as it was unfavorable the force simply left the building.

The girls stoutly maintain their position, and say they will not resume work until the difference is adjusted. Today they are strongly talking of organizing, and it is possible a meeting will be called for this purpose.

LOOKS FOR ADJUSTMENT.

Manager M. C. MacDougal, of the Paragon company, greeted The Sentinel reporter pleasantly, but was not inclined to talk concerning the trouble. "Yes, we have had a strike," said Mr. MacDougal, "and it was the change in the styles of work that caused the trouble. We have always paid good prices and treated our girls fairly, and the present prices were figured on the same basis as were those of last year. We have a good supply of orders on hand, and I did not expect any difficulty of this kind. I believe, however, that matters will adjust themselves in the course of a few days."

IGNORED THE INDICTMENTS.

Philadelphia, Nov. 20.—The United States grand jury today ignored the bills of indictment against Isaac A. Sweigard, former superintendent of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway company, who was charged by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen with having discharged employes of the Reading company because they were members of the brotherhood. The offense alleged constituted a violation of the act of congress of June 1, 1898, and the charge was by the president of the brotherhood, Valentine Fitzpatrick, whose headquarters are at Cleveland.

THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS

L. B. M'ELHENNEY ACCEPTS THE FRANCHISE.

The Life of the Franchise is Limited to Fifty Years and Fares are Fixed at Four Cents.

Mr. L. B. McElhenney, of Dayton, Ohio, yesterday afternoon signed the contract with the city for an interurban franchise on South Calhoun street. The life of the franchise is fifty years and the board of works reserves the right to grant a second franchise on the same street if deemed advisible. The company is compelled to give a bond to save the city harmless and must keep the space between its tracks and for twelve inches on each side of the tracks in the same condition as to paving as is the balance of the street. The fare for adults is fixed at 5 cents and it is stipulated that the conductors must keep on hand a supply of tickets to be sold six for 25 cents or twenty-five for $1. The company must keep on deposit in the city $100 with which repairs can be made provided the company is too slow with the work. One car must run each hour from 5 a. m. until 12 midnight, and the road must be completed and in operation by April 1, 1902, or the franchise is forfeited. The board made no demand for compensation to the city inasmuch as the franchise occupies only about eight squares of streets. The contract now goes to the city council for ratification.

The Home Telephone company asked for the right to extend its underground conduit system in the alley between Wayne and Washington streets, from its present terminus at Barr street to a point fifteen feet east of Lafayette, to the cable pole. The board granted the petition, but stipulated that the work should not be done prior to April 1, as if done now the alley would be impassable during the bad weather of the winter.

A deed of a strip of land near North Side park to John H. Bass and Fred Helling, as compensation for land given to make possible the widening of Clinton street, was approved by the board and sent to the mayor and council for approval.

NEW SORT OF RESTAURANT.

A vegetarian restaurant is among the immediate probabilities in Fort Wayne if the plans of G. W. Mann, of this city, are given sufficient encouragement. Mr. Mann's idea is a purely health food restaurant, dispensing with every variety of animal fats and substituting the nut preparations. He has been in conference with a number of prominent vegetarians of the city and is of the opinion that such an institution would succeed from the start.

TALK OF A BOWLING LEAGUE.

Members of the Tippecanoe club are considering the proposition to organize a bowling league from its membership and inaugurate a series of games during the winter months. It is probable about six teams will be organized and a schedule arranged similar to those of the professional base ball teams. The Tips will give a smoker and pedro party on Thursday evening.

PROSTRATED BY HEAT.

New York, Nov. 20.—Minnie Adams, a clerk in the postoffice, was overcome by the heat while at work today. She was attended by a physician and was able to return to her home.

LIFE SNUFFED OUT

CHARLES LIEBIG MEETS DEATH THIS AFTERNOON.

HE WAS OVERCOME BY DAMPS

FELL LIFELESS TO THE BOTTOM OF A WELL.

SAD AFFAIR ON TAM STREET

POLICE REMOVE THE REMAINS FROM THE WELL.

Charles Liebig, a mason well advanced in years, met death by damps in a well at his residence at the corner of Tam and Winter streets, shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The well in which Liebig lost his life was an old-fashioned dug well which had gone dry, and with the aid of two neighbors Liebig started this afternoon to clean out the well. A windlass was used and Liebig stepped into the bucket to be lowered into the well. When but a part of the way down Liebig discovered "damps" in the well and called to his companions to bring him to the surface.

Before this could be done the noxious gas overcame the unfortunate man. His hands released their grasp upon the rope and he plunged to the bottom of the well. The terrified spectators who soon gathered were powerless to aid the unconscious man and a hurried call was sent for the police ambulance and grappling apparatus.

Liebig expired almost the moment his body touched the bottom of the well, and the remains were later recovered by the police with the grappling hooks. Coroner Barnett was called and left for the scene at 2:30 o'clock.

Liebig was 57 years of age. The two men manipulating the windlass were Bernhard Obitz and Tony Sellers. It is said the well was tested for damps before Liebig was lowered into the well, and though the lights went out, thus showing the presence of the poisonous gas, Liebig insisted upon making the descent, and also declined to be tied fast to the rope.

Liebig fell a distance of at least thirty feet to the quicksand bottom of the well, and Coroner Barnett is of the opinion that his death was almost instantaneous. It required about twenty minutes' work upon the part of the police with the grappling hooks to raise the body of the unfortunate man.

Liebig leaves a widow and four children—Emil Liebig, a brakeman on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad; Henry Liebig, a Pennsylvania brakeman, Mrs. John Sheehan and Miss Edith Liebig.

TO CULTIVATE RUBBER.

Some time ago it was announced that Fort ayne gentlemen had secured a grant of 000 acres of land in the province of Vera Cruz, Mex., and would enter upon the cultivation of rubber trees. Arrangements are now complete for the incorporation of the Mexican Plantation company, with a capital stock of $10,000, and the directors are H. A. Sprague, president; J. H. Orr, secretary and treasurer, and B. F. Harper, attorney. One hundred acres of the land will be put under cultivation in various short crops to yield an income from the start, and the balance of the land will be planted with 125,000 rubber trees. Much of the capital stock has already been subscribed, but no certificates will be issued until the first crop is ready to harvest.

THE DIVINE SARA ARRIVES.

New York, Nov. 20. Madame Sara Bernhardt and M. Constant Coquelin and their large company of actors arrived here today on L'Aquitaine. The vessel had a rough trip, meeting heavy seas all the way across. Madame Bernhardt, who looked to be in the best of health, said she was glad to revisit this country, as she expects to write a great deal of America in her memoirs, which she is now preparing. The actress denied that Rosland was insane and asserted that the stories to that effect had been circulated by the author's enemies.

I had read much about them, and went to Meyer Bros. & Co.'s drug store and got a box. I could feel the effects of their use from the first dose and at the end of a week my backache was all gone. TRUSTEE BOULTON RESIGNS

H. B. ROLLER WILL BE NAMED TO SUCCEED HIM.

This Settles the Difficulty in the Springfield Township Election Contest.

Oscar Boulton, trustee of Springfield township, has sent his resignation to the county clerk, to go into effect as soon as his successor is elected. Mr. Boulton, republican, and Hiram B. Roller, democrat, were opposing candidates for trustee of Springfield township at the late election, and Mr. Boulton was declared elected by one majority. One vote for Mr. Roller on which every democratic candidate was stamped and the rooster not molested was thrown out. Had this vote been counted the election would have been a tie. Mr. Boulton was given the certificate of election and last Friday entered upon the discharge of his duties. His health is not good and he finally determined to resign, providing the commissioners would name Mr. Roller as his successor, Mr. Boulton contending that Mr. Roller should have had an equal opportunity with him to draw straws for the office. The commissioners agreed to appoint Mr. Roller and today Mr. Boulton's resignation was received by County Clerk Belot. Mr. Roller will be elected at once.

THE NEW PEOPLE'S STORE.

The above cut is of the new Root Memorial building, on East Berry street, which will be occupied by Bendell and Company. The building is four stories in height, with basement, and is sixty feet wide and 150 feet long. It will be by all odds the finest store room on the city, and competent critics say the finest in the state. The furniture and all appurtenances will be of the most modern types. Sixteen illuminated show cases and the latest improved cash system will be features of the store. The firm will occupy the entire four floors. Special attention has been given to the lighting of the store, and prismatic glass is used extensively to reflect light into the building to supplement nature. The firm has its own lighting plant, with a total horse-power of 101. There are two engines and two dynamos, a complete switch-board, and fifty arc lights and 250 incandescent lights will be used. There are two elevators—one for passenger and one for freight. The first and second floors of the building are nearly ready for occupancy, and the People's Store will open up the building between the first and eighth of December. The rest of the structure will be hurried to completion as rapidly as possible.

DID NOT SEND IT

MRS. DUNLAP SENT NO BIDE TO SENATOR HANNA.

FOR THE BURNED PIGSFEET

HER NAME WAS FORGED TO THE LETTER.

AFFAIR A MALICIOUS JOKE

MRS. DUNLAP WILL RETURN THE SENATOR'S CHECK.

Mrs. Christina Dunlap, of 73 McCulloch street, this city, and Hon. Marcus A. Hanna, United States senator from Ohio and chairman of the republican national committee, are joint victims of an ill-considered practical joke perpetrated by some person in Fort Wayne. One week ago yesterday a story was printed in one of the city papers that on the occasion of Senator Hanna's visit to this city week before last Mrs. Dunlap had gone from her home, leaving her husband to superintend the cooking of some pigs' feet. Mr. Dunlap, according to the story, wanted to hear the senator and abandoned his culinary charge in order to go to Princess rink, and upon his return found that the trotters had burned. It was further stated that Mrs. Dunlap, feeling that Senator Hanna having attracted her husband from watching the cooking, was responsible for the burning of the pigs' feet, had sent him a bill claiming damages in the sum of $1.80 for three dozen shanks.

Sunday dispatches sent out to many newspapers from Cleveland announced that Senator Hanna had received the bill, and, holding it just, had remitted a check for $2 to Mrs. Dunlap, with a kindly letter stating that she might keep the change as a reward for Mr. Dunlap's zeal in the republican cause. That part of the story is true. Mrs. Dunlap, a day or two ago, received a check for $2, together with the letter referred to.

The untruthful part of the story is that Mrs. Dunlap sent a bill for the ruined pigsfeet to Senator Hanna. She did not. That someone did is proved by Senator Hanna's letter and the check. Mrs. Dunlap is very much annoyed by the notoriety given her by the incident and would greatly like to learn the identity of the person who forged her name to a letter and brought her and her husband into such unpleasant publicity.

The joke on Senator Hanna lies in the fact that it was not Senator Hanna but Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, democratic candidate for vice president, whom Mr. Dunlap went to hear at the expense of five pigsfeet, not three dozen.

Mrs. Dunlap is an industrious and sensible woman who has the good repute of minding her business. The baseless story has given herself and Mr. Dunlap so much annoyance that she wishes to deny it in the most emphatic terms. She gave The Sentinel the following statement today:

"Editor of The Sentinel: The statement that I wrote Senator Mark Hanna a bill and demanding $1.80 in payment for three dozen pigsfeet is a lie made out of whole cloth. I never wrote a word to Senator Hanna in my life. The story was gotten up by some person who was willing to forge my name and cause me annoyance for the sake of a poor joke. My husband is a republican. He is not a democrat, never was and I hope never will be.

"Mrs. Christina Dunlap."

Mrs. Dunlap will return to Senator Hanna the check for $2.

ANOTHER CASHIER SHORT.

Rutland, Vt., Nov. 20.—A special to the Herald from Montpelier says: A report is current here that G. L. Closson, cashier of the First National ank of Springfield, Vt., is $20,000 short in his accounts. F. G. Field, the president of the bank, made the following statement last night: "Cashier Closson some time ago allowed his son, G. L. Closson, jr., a member of the defunct brokerage firm of Knott & Closson, of Burlington, to draw $16,000 from the bank, giving as security a deed of real estate which has since proved to be worthless. As the deed was made out to Closson personally, his bondsmen have been called upon to make the amount good. They have asked that Closson be retained as cashier while they are making an investigation." The credit of the bank is in no way impaired.

Asthma

Do you know what it is? The hard struggle for air, the spasmodic breathing, the nights spent in a chair, all tell the story of terrible suffering. But Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cures asthma. There is no doubt about it. We have hundreds of grateful testimonials to this effect.

Three sizes: 25c., enough for an ordinary cold; 50c., just right for asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, whooping-cough, hard colds; $1.00, most economical for chronic cases.

FORGER IN JAIL.

Detective Coling is home from Laporte and Michigan City, where he went to arrest E. A. Morgan, alias E. A. Logan, alias E. A. Moulton. He found his man in jail at Laporte on a charge of beating a hotel bill and the detective returned to Fort Wayne empty-handed. Morgan, his wife and children were guests of the Randall hotel in this city for two weeks and apparently were as fine people as ever stopped at the hotel. Landlord Ohneck finally became suspicious and demanded his money. He received in payment of the board bill a certified check for $52 on the Merchants' National bank, of Toledo. He sent the check for collection and in a few days it came back marked "no good." Mr. Ohneck then proceeded to warn other hotel men through the hotel papers and a landlord at Michigan City, where Morgan and his family were stopping, saw the warning and called Morgan's attention to the story. Morgan skipped again, sending a livery rig for his family. He went to Laporte, where he was arrested and is now in jail. Detective Coling left his warrant in the hands of Laporte officers and if Morgan is released there he will be arrested on the Allen county warrant.

NEW ASSESSOR IS IN.

Monday afternoon William Eggemann assumed the duties of county assessor, Thomas Greer, sr., retiring. Mr. Greer has faithfully discharged the duties of his office and in four years has added to the tax duplicate $890,000, not including the large amount added by the board of review. He has attended strictly to the affairs of his office and has set an example which his successor has only to follow to make a record for himself. Mr. Eggemann possesses all the qualifications for a competent assessor and should make a record in the office equal to that established by Mr. Greer. His numerous friends wish him abundant success in his efforts to ferret out hidden wealth.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Christen—a daughter.

FIRST SIXTEEN YEARS

Determine Structure and Physical Health.

If parents could realize what a crime they commit in permitting children to have heavy drugs during their early life such drugs, for instance, as coffee, which stunts their growth, prepares them for dyspepsia and nervous wrecks—they would do anything, go to any amount of trouble and care, to change the methods and give their children the advantages that nature demands to produce perfect specimens.

A 60-year-old woman writes: "My over-indulgent papa used to say at the table, 'Why not let the child have what she likes; it won't hurt her any?' He referred particularly to my drinking coffee, which I was very fond of as a child. He honestly thought it didn't hurt me, for with his strong body, apparently without nerves, he was not consciously affected by coffee, but the effect on me—a bundle of nerves—was to develop restlessness and stunt my growth.

"The first effect after drinking coffee was that of delightful exhilaration and I felt courage and strength to attack almost any amount of active work, but in a few hours the reaction came, with misery in my chest, palpitation of the heart and most unbearable pains in my stomach.

"Finally my attention was called to Postum Cereal Food Coffee and we secured some of it. It was prepared according to directions, but breakfast being delayed, the Postum got an extra boiling, which developed all its virtues, and we all fell in love with it from the first moment. The change in our physical health, after drinking Postum, was something remarkable. We have as delicious coffee as any one could ask, but it is a perfectly healthy coffee, and the more we drink of it, in reason, the better we are. I am satisfied that the increasing amount of heart difficulty of late years among young people is directly attributable to the use of coffee, and it is a great blessing to have so safe and delicious a food coffee as Postum. Please omit my name from publication."—East Brookfield, Mass. Name given upon application to Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

Ingratitude, Ingratitude, thy name is Bill. In response to Abdul Hamid's congratulations upon his re-election President McKinley has ordered two warships to the Port of Smyrna to stimulate payment of that overdue account.

The groom in the latest international marriage has a ducal coronet and his bride has a million. As a citation from history it may be stated that the Manchester title has stood the wear and tear of life somewhat better than the several fortunes at various times related to it.

The talk that a place of settlement will be found for the Transvaal Boers in German Africa and that the third "trek" in the history of that stubborn people will follow the British conquest is reinforced by the assertion that the movement has already begun. According to German statistics up to the end of last year a Boer population of 637 had settled in German Southwest Africa, most of them in Great Mamoland, a region said to offer facilities for cattle raising. This, of course, is a small start, but considering that it took place in the very inception of the Anglo-Boer dispute, it indicates that many more may follow and the movement take the dimensions of those made when thousands of Boers moved into the wilderness to get out of sight of the British flag, 40 from a symbol of aggression and spoliation. Of course, the British element which precipitated the war does not care where the Boers go, so long as the promoters and speculators have free sweep with the gold mines. But sane British opinion may yet see that a conquest which has hopelessly alienated the bone and sinew of the real population of British South Africa may cost far more than it comes to.

The report that Count Von Waldersee has already sent a column to destroy the Ming tombs, northwest of Pekin, is one that we hope will prove unfounded. Even if it were necessary to inflict an extreme punishment on the imperial government with which the world is negotiating on the theory that it is not guilty, the Ming tombs do not contain the ancestors of the Manchu dynasty. They are the tombs of an entirely extinct race of Chinese rulers, but are highly prized for their wonderful marble architecture. Their destruction would be wanton vandalism, no more and no less.

There may be legislation mapped out for congress this winter that will cut a bigger figure in the nation's destiny than repeal of some of the more annoying features of the war tax law, but none that will be more popular. Certain of the stamp taxes are a nuisance that has become almost intolerable, not because of any onerous financial burden they impose, but for the fact that attention to them must be given in multitudinous petty transactions. If the government revenues cannot be reduced for the present, we believe increased customs duties would be preferable to continuance of stamp taxes. There is encouraging indication that congress will vouchsafe some relief.

Senator Hanna and other managers of the late republican campaign must feel like hugging themselves that Chairman Ray, of the house committee on judiciary, was kept muzzled during the struggle for votes. In a late interview Congressman Ray makes the declaration that the future of the Philippines so far as this country is concerned will be determined by the decision of the supreme court respecting the constitutionality of the Porto Rico tariff measure. He goes on to say that if it shall be the decision of the court that the constitution follows the flag and that the islands taken from Spain cannot be made subject to special tariff acts, then the Philippines will be abandoned. This is very frank, and it may be reliable, but we doubt it. At all events, it comes with something of shock so soon after the land has rung from Kennebec to San Diego with perfervid oratory about "duty and destiny," "world power," "the decrees of providence," "master nation," "benevolent assimilation," and other texts that proved we first could not help becoming possessed of the Philippines and second that we could not abandon them if we wanted to. Congressman Ray's contention that if we cannot erect an impassable tariff barrier between the islands and the products of countries other than the United States views only the most sordid commercial exploitation of the Filipinos and makes the "white man's burden" look like a much less desirable load than it appeared a month ago. But there is a side to the question that is neither moral nor sentimental. If the supreme court declares the islands an integral part of the United States, as much so as New Mexico or Alaska, how are we going to get rid of them? Reduced to its lowest terms Congressman Ray's proposition presents the rather absurd and curious moral view that if we have to keep the islands we do not want them and if we do not have to keep them then they must not be relinquished. It is doubtful if this view will be shared in by congress.

WILL REORGANIZE THE BANK

NEWPORT INSTITUTION TO BE PUT ON NEW BASIS.

An Assessment of $145 Per Share to Make Up Brown's Shortage is the Plan Proposed.

Newport, Ky., Nov. 20.—Plans are being formulated for the reorganization of the German National bank now in the hands of National Bank Examiner Tucker as temporary receiver owing to a shortage of nearly $200,000 charged to Assistant Cashier Frank M. Brown.

An assessment of $145 per share is the plan under consideration. Frederick J. Stone, who claims to be an intimate acquaintance of Brown, states that he met the latter yesterday in Fort Wayne, Ind., and that he was en route to Canada.

Receiver Tucker today opened the doors of the bank for the purpose of receiving depositors, pass books and money due the bank.

THE HIDING OF SIN

A STRONG DISCOURSE BY THE EVANGELIST.

REV. GEIL TALKS PLAINLY

TREATS SUBJECT OF SIN FROM THE HUMAN SIDE.

BRIBING OF THE CONSCIENCE

A LARGE AUDIENCE AT BAPTIST TABERNACLE.

Increasing interest is being manifested in the evangelistic meetings by Rev. William Edgar Geil, which are being held this week at the Baptist tabernacle, and the crowd last evening was much larger than at any of the week-day services yet held.

The meeting last night opened with the usual song and prayer service, after which Rev. Geil announced his text from Proverbs, 18-13: "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy."

"My mission this evening is not to specify the different forms of sin, but to show you the different things by which man covers up the sins he commits. I am dealing with the human side of the question this evening. First, some people cover up their sin with the sins of other people. Two men, one a Pharisee and the other a publican, were praying together. The Pharisee said, 'Thank God I am not as other men,' but the publican, in all humility, took all the blame for his sins upon himself and was justified.

"Again, some people attempt to cover up their sins with gold and merchandise. The young man came running, and I like to see young men do that, and said to Christ that he was desirous of embracing His religion. Christ told him to give up his worldly possessions and go forth and preach the gospel to men. And that young man went away; he found the religion too hard. And how many there are like him in this day. They 'come running' to the church, and when they find out what the requirements of Christianity are they go away.

"Some people cover up their sins with unanswered prayer, and that is the most hellish covering they can use. They go to their rooms, lock their doors and kneel down to pray, or they think they do. Some of you have been doing that for thirty years. You are easing your conscience in that way, but you are disobeying God. He told you to go, weep and pray with the sinner. You who kneel at your bedside at night and repeat the words that God has taught you merely because it eases your conscience are the basest of hypocrites. You are entering into a conspiracy to make God a liar. That is the blackest blanket with which a man can cover up his sins. A man says, 'Well, I give so much to home missions, and I give so much to foreign missions, and so much to my church.' Yes, he is trying to cover up his sins that way. He is deceiving himself; he may never be undeceived. God can get along without your paltry gift. He did it before you were born and He will do it long after you are dead and forgotten. But you can never get along without God.

"Some cover up their sins with excuses. My friends, there is a shorter way to spell excuses, one that requires but three letters instead of seven—l-i-e. Two deacons of a church where I once preached I invited to wait after the service was over, as I wished to have a word with them. One said he had rheumatism in his shoulder and the dampness of the air, he thought, would make it worse. He said he always suffered with rheumatism after the sun went down. The other said that he was a sufferer from neuralgia and that he did not care to be out after the sun went down, because it was bad for his face. A few nights later I was awakened by the ringing of the firebells, and hastily pulling on my clothes, I ran out to see where the fire was. It was pouring rain, and about the first people I saw when I got to that fire were those two deacons. Both were but half dressed and they had no umbrellas. They did not like to be out after sundown, because it was bad for their rheumatism or their neuralgia. Excuses are often lies, and we preachers that hear these excuses know they are lies. But we dare not say so; we must bow down.

"God hates sin, but loves the people. We are responsible for the reputation of Christ in this city. They say Christ has not the power to marshal his army against the forces of evil. They say Christ has not enough influence in this city to close the cursed liquor shops. They say Christ has not the influence in this city to prevent the police, the guardians of the peace and welfare of this city, drinking with women in these liquor holes after 10 o'clock at night. They say Christ has not the influence to save a thousand souls in this city in a day. We are responsible for the reputation of Christ in this city.

"I am a great admirer of Jonah. He seems like a personal friend. I do not mean that I admire Jonah for his qualities, but he was so much like my Christian friends of today. God told Jonah to go northeast. Jonah said 'I will go southwest.' And the modern philanthropic spirit was manifested in Jonah when he told the Lord he would pay his own expenses. 'Northeast,' said God; 'southwest,' said Jonah. Jonah went down to the ship and paid his fare and then he crawled down to the cargo hold, a fit place for him, and went to sleep. The ship cast off, and made her way out into the open sea southwest. Pretty soon the clouds began to gather, the wind blew, the lightning flashed, the waves rolled higher and higher and soon the boat lost her sails, then her mast and then her rudder. She began to drift toward the rocks and her frightened sailors began to pray to their images to abate the storm. Then the captain remembered Jonah. He crawled into the hold and grasping friend Jonah by the collar, or where his collar should have been, he tried to wake him up. He succeeded after a while and then asked Jonah to pray to God to abate the storm. Jonah said, 'If you want me to pray get me a synagogue. My ticket is all right, haven't I got a right to sleep?' 'You hold in your hand the golden key of prayer,' said the captain. Then Jonah fully awakened. 'I am to blame," said he. 'You must get rid of me. God told me to go northeast and I went southwest.' Then rose Jonah to the plane of a savior. 'I will die to save you. God told me to go northeast and I went southwest.' Then the sailors threw him into the sea. Just below the surface of the water was a great monster of the deep, and it opened its jaws and down went Jonah. My Christian friends, even that monster couldn't stand Jonah more than three days. It made straight for the land and lost no time in depositing Jonah on the beach. Jonah did not wait for anything then. With hair standing on end and garments flying he started—northeast. And when he got to the great city of Nineveh he preached as no man ever preached before. Jonah was stubborn, like the rest of humanity. He needed to be shown that the will of God was the master will—and he got a practical illustration."

At the close of the sermon Rev. Geil announced seven minutes for Christian conversation among the congregation. After the regular meeting had been dismissed a brief service was held in the Sunday school rooms of the church, in which a large number of the congregation participated.

This evening at the Baptist Tabernacle Rev. Geil will preach on the subject, "Backbone," and he promises something interesting for his hearers.

RUMORED BROWN WAS HERE.

SUPT. GORSLINE TALKS TO DEFAULTER'S FRIEND.

He Asserts That the Newport Man Is Now in Canada, Where He Is Safe From Arrest.

A rumor was current last evening that Frank M. Brown, the Newport, Ky., defaulting bank cashier, was in Fort Wayne. Superintendent Gorsline began an investigation and learned that Fred J. Stone, a Cincinnati traveling man, who was registered at the New Aveline, knew something of Brown's whereabouts and the superintendent went to Stone's room and had a long talk with him. Mr. Stone informed the superintendent that he had seen Brown on Monday and that he had not come to Fort Wayne. He had met Brown at the G. R. & I. depot at Winchester, Ind., and there had a short talk with him. Brown told him that matters would so shape themselves ultimately that he would return to Newport, but that he was going to Canada and expected to arrive there at 10 o'clock last night. "The old boy is safe by this time," remarked Stone. Stone and Brown were schoolmates and when the two had met at Winchester Brown had confided in his friend. Mr. Stone admitted that he had changed his appearance considerably. He had been to St. Louis, and was doubling back to Canada. Brown left Winchester for the east on a Big Four train, but further than this Stone would not talk.

How Mothers may Help their Daughters into Womanhood

Every mother possesses information of vital value to her young daughter. That daughter is a precious legacy, and the responsibility for her future is largely in the hands of the mother. The mysterious change that develops the thoughtless girl into the thoughtful woman should find the mother on the watch day and night. As she cares for the physical well-being of her daughter, so will the woman be, and her children also.

When the young girl's thoughts become sluggish, when she experiences headaches, dizziness, faintness, and exhibits an abnormal disposition to sleep, pains in the back and lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude, and a dislike for the society of other girls, when she is a mystery to herself and friends, then the mother should go to her aid promptly. At such a time the greatest aid to nature is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It prepares the young system for the coming change, and is the surest reliance in this hour of trial.

The following letters from Miss Good are practical proof of Mrs. Pinkham's efficient advice to young women.

Miss Good asks Mrs. Pinkham for Help.

June 12th, 1899.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been very much bothered for some time with my monthly periods being irregular. I will tell you all about it, and put myself in your care, for I have heard so much of you. Each month menstruation would become less and less, until it entirely stopped for six months, and now it has stopped again. I have become very nervous and of a very bad color. I am a young girl and have always had to work very hard. I would be very much pleased if you would tell me what to do."—MISS PEARL GOOD, Cor. 29th Avenue and Yesler Way, Seattle, Wash.

MISS PEARL GOOD

The Happy Result.

February 10th, 1900.

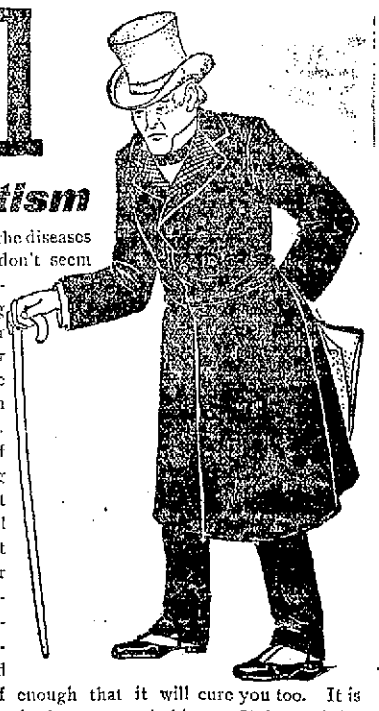

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough. It is just simply wonderful the change your medicine has made in me. I feel like another person. My work is now a pleasure to me, while before using your medicine it was a burden. To-day I am a healthy and happy girl. I think if more women would use your Vegetable Compound there would be less suffering in the world. I cannot express the relief I have experienced by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—MISS PEARL GOOD, Cor. 29th Avenue and Yesler Way, Seattle, Wash.

Omega Oil

Rheumatism

Rheumatism is one of the diseases that medical science don't seem able to cure. One professor says one thing about it and another professor says another thing. And all the time people keep on suffering terribly. Now, what's the use of wasting words arguing the matter? Why not get some Omega Oil and try that? Rub it into your poor feet or legs or arms or shoulders. Plenty of people have cured themselves in this way, and that ought to be proof enough that it will cure you too. It is an unusual liniment and does unusual things. It is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for.

All druggists sell Omega Oil, or can get it for you of any jobber if they want to. If your druggist refuses to sell you this liniment that stops pain, the Omega Chemical Co., 257 Broadway, New York, will mail you a bottle, prepaid, for 50c. in cash, money order or stamps. 753

There is a school district in Reno county, Kansas, in which there is a school house and a teacher, but not a solitary pupil. Miss Mary Scroggins, the teacher, opens school every morning and holds herself in readiness to instruct any children who may come, but she is the sole occupant of the building. There are plenty of children in the district, but they are of Catholic parentage and attend a parochial school.

CHARGES MURDER

MRS. CLARK, OF CONVERSE, IS HUSBAND'S ACCUSER.

REVEALS MYSTERY OF CRIME

STORY TOLD IN REVENGE FOR A BEATING.

HAPPENINGS IN HOOSIERDOM

GENERAL NEWS OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Marion, Ind., Nov. 20.—Robert Clark, who conducts a saloon and roadhouse near Converse, west of here, is under arrest on the charge of murder and lodged in jail in this city.

About six months ago, an unknown glassworker, who came to Converse to work in a factory, was found dead in front of Clark's place. Clark stated to the officers at the time that the man had fallen against a post, striking his head, which was the probable cause of his death. An inquest was held, and, as no evidence of murder could be obtained, no arrests were made.

Saturday Clark whipped his wife and she came to Marion and told the state's attorney that Clark murdered the glassworker. She gave a description of the affair and gave the names of a number of witnesses. The state's attorney caused the arrest of Clark and immediately sent officers after the witnesses. Clark has a bad record in this city. He shot Lloyd Ferguson, a well-respected citizen, about four years ago. Ferguson recovered from the wound after a long illness, during which time Clark was confined in jail. The trial was postponed from time to time, and Clark was kept in jail a year.

He was also connected with a jury bribing case in Marion that implicated some of the best attorneys at the bar. He was out on bond, having the charge of arson against him.

REV. MR. DEIGHTON DEAD.

Huntington, Ind., Nov. 20.—Rev. James Deighton, 67 years old, died at his home in this city at noon yesterday. He was born in Workingham, Berkshire, England, and began preaching at the age of 20 at Port Sea. On account of his eloquent sermons he was then called a second Spurgeon, of whom he was afterward a close friend. He held pastorates in London and other places in England prior to 1883, when he came to America. Presbyterian churches at Pierce City, Neb.; Marshall, Ill.; Dresden, O., and this city were under his charge. Since 1892 he has had no regular church, although active in ministerial work in Chicago, where he made his home with a son until a few days prior to his death.

THE GRAVEL ROADS LAW.

Logansport, Ind., Nov. 20—A number of townships in this (Cass) county voted for road improvement, which made necessary the issuance of bonds by the board of county commissioners. The law stipulates that the bonds shall be for an amount equivalent to the contract price of building the roads, but when the bonds were written, the commissioners included the cost of printing, surveying, and other incidentals, aggregating several thousand dollars. When the bonds were offered for sale, the bankers refused to take them, because of the elastic interpretation of the law. New bonds were written after eliminating the incidentals, and they were easily disposed of. The old county council was then asked to make an appropriation to pay the incidentals, but refused on the ground that they were not a county, but a township obligation. It is thought that the next legislature will be asked to amend the law.

OLD PEOPLE CALLED HOME.

Bluffton, Ind., Nov. 20.—Mrs. Lavinia Halloway, seventy-six years old; Mrs. Rebecca Clark, seventy-six; Mrs. Mary Bowman, seventy-nine; George Cholet, seventy-eight, and William Little, eighty, have died in this city and vicinity in the last three days. Cholet was born in France, and was a clown with Robinson's circus for years.

SLASHED WITH A RAZOR.

Marion, Ind., Nov. 20.—While Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Slagle were promenading in the business portion of the city, looking at the displays in the shops windows, a stranger suddenly accosted Mrs. Slager, exclaiming, "Hello, Shorty!" He attempted to address further remarks, but Mr. Slagle interrupted, saying, "This woman is my wife." The stranger then renewed his approaches and Slagle struck him. Instantly a razor flashed into view, and Slagle received a terrible wound in the throat, barely missing the jugular vein. In the confusion following the would-be murder escaped unidentified.

SEVEN WEEKS IN A BATH.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 20.—For almost a year Oscar D. Carpenter, a prominent manufacturer of this city, has suffered indescribable torture from a sort of eczema, which first appeared on his wrists and gradually spread over his body until only a small portion of his nose is exempt. Mr. Carpenter consulted the best known specialists without relief, until about seven weeks ago, when a new line of treatment was adopted. The patient was then placed in a bath regularly supplied with hot and cold water, and immersed to his chin, and there he has lain for seven weeks, to his great bodily improvement. His case is considered one of much interest.

MISSIONARIES GOING BACK.

San Francisco, Nov. 20.—The steamship China, which sails for the Orient today, will take back the first missionaries that have ventured into China since the boxer outbreak. Among those who will depart are Rev. Dr. Trowick and his bride. The former is from Nashville and the latter from Louisville. They go to Shanghai.

ACCUSED OF IMMORALITY.

Berlin, Nov. 20.—In the trial of Herr Sternberg, the Berlin banker, accused of offense against morality, the court ordered the arrest of the witness, Luppe, whom the proceedings strongly implicated and who disappeared today.

TURKEY YIELDS IN ONE CASE.

Constantinople, Nov. 20.—The repeated representations of the United States legation here have resulted in the release from prison of the Armenian, Arzouyian, who was arrested while traveling on an American passport. Arzouyian was ordered to leave the country.

SURPRISING RESULTS.

A Simple Internal Remedy Makes Remarkable Cures of Catarrh.

People who have used sprays, inhalers, salves and washes for catarrh and have found how useless and inconvenient they are, will be agreeably surprised at results following the use of a pleasant, internal remedy in tablet form; druggists everywhere admit that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, which they sell at 50 cents for full sized treatment, is the safest, most effective and popular of all catarrh remedies.

Nearly all cheap cough mixtures and throat lozenges contain opiates; these cheap medicines give a temporary relief, especially with little children by destroying nerve sensation; the irritation in throat, which causes coughing is temporarily removed, not by removing the cause, but by deadening the nerves of feeling the irritation is not felt, although it is still there and will promptly return.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is the best remedy to remove catarrhal secretion, whether in the nose, throat or stomach, because they are composed of wholesome antiseptics like Eucolyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin; when you use these tablets you know what you are putting into your system and not taking chances with cocaine, opiates or similar poisons found in so many catarrh cures and cough medicines.

Dr. Ramsdell, in commenting on catarrh cures, says: "I can heartily recommend Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because they contain no cocaine nor other dangerous drug found in so many advertised catarrh cures. I have known of many cases of long standing catarrh in the head and throat completely cured by the daily use of these tablets for several weeks. One case in particular, which I could not reach with an inhaler or spray and where the catarrh caused daily headaches and a noticeable loss of hearing, was entirely cured by this harmless but effective remedy."

Dr. Wainwright says: "I never hesitate to prescribe Stuart's Catarrh Tablets for catarrhal headaches and catarrhal deafness because I know them to be perfectly safe for child or adult and have seen many remarkable cures resulting from their regular daily use; because they are advertised and sold in drug stores is no reason why any good physician should not use them, because we should seize upon the means of cure wherever found."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are especially valuable for catarrhal colds in children because they are pleasant to the taste and may be used freely to break up severe colds and croup at the very beginning.

All druggists sell the remedy at 50 cents for full sized package.

INSIDIOUS RUSSIA.

The statement that Russia has lent Persia one million sterling for the purpose of fortifying the Persian gulf ports, while not entirely credited, has aroused great uneasiness. Granting that the shah starts fortifying the gulf ports, it certainly will not be for the defense of his country against an invasion by any Arab tribes, but as a defensive measure against England, notwithstanding the fact that Britain has been the true ally and well-wisher of Persia for generations, and that there is no power in the world that is more anxious for the integrity of the shah's dominions.

It is an understood fact that England would sooner see Russia take Constantinople than allow her to have an outlet in the Persian gulf—for the safety of our Indian empire. Fortifying Persian ports at the instigation and expense of Russia, therefore, means that Russia intends converting them to her own use sooner or later. She is making enormous progress in Persia, a fact which seems lately to have escaped the attention of British statesmen; and there is a strong feeling in Persia that still more important developments are pending.

The shah's grand vizier—the sadrazam, as they call him—has on several occasions of late shown himself to be very unfriendly toward England and very friendly toward Russia. It is an open secret that the relations between Sir Mortimer Durand and the sadrazam were anything but cordial when the former was minister at Teheran, and the last audience Sir Mortimer had with him was certainly not of a pleasant nature.

Sir Mortimer Durand was too mild, too good, for Persia. We badly require a minister of the type of Sir H. Drummond-Wolff, who twelve years ago raised the prestige and power of Britain here from the bottom of the ladder to the top. Since he was transferred to Madrid we have steadily and surely climbed down, and Russian influence has just as steadily advanced.—London Express.

BRITONS AFRAID OF RIVALS.

The British people are desperately anxious to see the American cup back again in the old country, but they would prefer even more to know that the fastest mail steamer on the Atlantic had her home in the docks of the Mersey, says a London newspaper. Competition is becoming remorseless; the days of monopoly are receding swiftly into the past. Not many years ago such an angry outcry as that which was raised at the statement that great engineering contracts in connection with the railways of South Africa had been placed in the United States would have been impossible. British iron and steel masters would have laughed incredulously at the suggestion that their American rivals could produce work more cheaply and more quickly than themselves. There is no such laughter today.

The British public have not forgotten that it is an American bridge which crosses the Atbara, and that it was placed there by American engineers, because no British firm could guarantee its completion within six months of the time specified on the other side of the Atlantic. Whatever the reasons were, the fact remains—a standing reminder that the race is to the swift. When the huge contracts for South Africa come to be placed, will it be found that any of the leeway has been made up?

The rule requiring the conductors on a New York railway line much patronized by commuters to call out "Dont' forget your packages," is no longer in force, and as many bundles are now left behind as before the rule was adopted, and indeed while it was in effect. One fo the reasons assigned for not continuing the practice was the loss of its effect on the passengers after they had become accustomed to it.

A New York pawnbroker asserts that his business always improves just before a presidential election, owing to the fact that many so-called "sports" pledge their personal effects toward the close of the campaign in order to raise money to bet on the result.

A Society Woman

Undergoes a greater strain than is generally realized, and every woman is a society woman in her own circle. The debts of society are many and must be paid or there will come social bankruptcy, and it is in the punctual payment of social debts, regardless of health or feelings, that women often lay the foundation for serious illness. The late hours and rich foods, common to society gatherings, soon or late derange the stomach; the liver, perhaps, becomes involved, and the heart flutters or palpitates.

There is no medicine for the cure of diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition which can equal Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It heals the stomach, purifies and enriches the blood, cleanses the clogged liver, nourishes the nerves, and gives face and form the radiant beauty of health.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, and is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics.

Mrs. L. Hedgecoke, of Dozier, Collingsworth Co., Texas, writes: "I was troubled for seven or eight years with indigestion and liver complaint, and received more benefit from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' than any medicines I have ever tried."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

"You say the piece was very pathetic and you cried during the last act?"

"Yes, I cried because I had paid two dollars for a seat."

Count De Broke—What was that noise in the stable awhile ago?

Servant—I just kicked out a tailor that I owed money.

Count De Broke—Well, I want you to understand that I hire you to kick out my creditors, not yours.

The London Daily Mail says that the days of the banjo are numbered in England and that that instrument will soon be included in the same category with the mouthorgan and the accordion. The zither will probably be the favorite instrument during the coming winter.

GOOD ROADS CONVENTION.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Committees on permanent organization and on national and state legislation were announced by Chairman Moore at the opening of today's session of the National Good Roads convention. The work mapped out for those committees is considered the most important feature of the convention. The committee on permanent organization is expected to outline a plan whereby the work in all sections of the country can be unified and directed by the central body. The committee on national and state legislation will draft bills petitioning for appropriations from thirty-six state legislatures to carry on the work of building good roads. A measure providing for the utilization of convict labor, under the system already in use in Missouri and Tennessee, will be drawn up by the legislative committee for presentation to the various state legislatures. H. R. Whitemore, of Missouri, was appointed chairman of the permanent organization committee, and Robert Stone, of Kansas, chairman of the legislative committee.

CAMPANIA HELD TO BLAME.

London, Nov. 20.—The judgment of the admiralty court was rendered today in the action brought by the owners of the British bark Embleton to recover damages for the sinking of that vessel by the Cunard line steamer Campania, in July last, during a heavy fog, about six hours after leaving Queenstown, the collision resulting in the drowning of eleven of the crew of the Embleton, which was loaded with dynamite. The court found that the Campania's speed was excessive and that the Campania was solely blameable for the sinking of the Embleton, and judgment was pronounced accordingly. The Cunard company intends to make an appeal.

THE CZAR NOT SO WELL.

Lividia, European Russia, Nov. 20.—The bulletin issued by the czar's physicians today is less favorable. It says:

"The emperor passed a satisfactory day yesterday. At 9 in the evening the patient's temperature was 102.2; pulse, 80. His majesty slept tranquilly until 3 in the morning. Subsequently his rest was broken and perspiration appeared. This morning his condition was fairly satisfactory. Temperature, 100.04; pulse, 70."

If you have chills with fever, aches in back of neck and head, and tired, worn-out feeling, a trial will convince you of their merit. W. A. Null, of Webb, Ill., writes: "My children suffered for more than a year with chills and fever; then two bottles of Electric Bitters cured them." Only 50 cents. Try them. Guaranteed. EMBEZZLER ALVORD IS HELD.

New York, Nov. 20.—Cornelius L. Alvord, jr., former note teller in the First National bank, who is accused of embezzling $690,000 from that institution, was held today to await the action of the grand jury. It is understood that Alvord will be indicted immediately and that his case will be put on the calendar for the term beginning the second Wednesday in December.

A WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

A most delightful social occasion was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Disbro, 177 Wells street, last Friday evening. It was the date of their fifteenth wedding anniversary and quite a number of beautiful invitations were sent to their friends. The response was general. The house was completely filled with the guests, who brought with them many words of congratulation and cheer. Mr. and Mrs. Disbro and their two daughters, Fay and Fern, were at their best and entertained in a most royal manner. It was their purpose to provide the entertainment of the evening without any expectation of presents, but their decision was overruled in part and the guests insisted on leaving with them some tokens of their regard to serve as souvenirs of a delightful period of their life. A handsome chrysanthemum plant was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Coverdale, and a cut glass fruit dish was given by members and friends of Trinity M. E. church, of which Mr. and Mrs. Disbro are members. The presentation remarks of Rev. White, the pastor, were touching and beautiful, and the dish was tendered by the pastor's wife. Mr. and Mrs. Disbro received the presents with graceful words. The rooms were decorated with choice flowers, and elegant refreshments were served. The honors at the table were performed by the Misses Josie Plank and Lucinda and Sarah Frase. Miss Audia White received the guests on their arrival. Several invitations had been sent to Michigan, where Mr. and Mrs. Disbro formerly resided, and where they were married. The evening was delightfully complete and will be long remembered by all who were there. The guests took their departure at a late hour, after thanking the host and hostess for their kind entertainment, and wishing them happy returns of the anniversary.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—With weak and lower cables to influence them there was some disposition among bear traders to hammer wheat at the opening of trading today, and initial prices were a shade lower in consequence. December opened a shade lower at 70½@70¼c, advanced to 70½@70⅝c, held firm for a time and then fell sharply to 70c. A reaction to 70¼@70⅜c followed. Northwest receipts were 485 cars, compared with 540 last week and 1,225 a year ago. Chicago receipts were 188 cars, 6 of contract grade.

Corn was decidedly strong. The situation was anything but encouraging to shorts, only 14 cars of contract corn being reported in today's inspection of 87 cars. November advanced nearly 2c on a few bids. Opening ⅝c to ¾c higher at 41@41½c, it advanced steadily to 42½c. December was also in demand. Opening a shade higher at 35¼@35⅜c, it advanced to 35¾c and reacted to 35½@35⅝c. The demand became more general as the session progressed. Receipts were 878 cars.

Oats ruled dull but steady. December opened unchanged at 21¾@21⅞c and sold at 21⅞c. Receipts were 244 cars.

Provisions were a little easier all around at the opening. The run of hogs considerably exceeded the estimate, but offerings of provisions were very light, and the tone improved somewhat later. January pork opened 2½c lower at $11.60 and advanced to $11.65; January lard opened 2½c lower at $6.02½ and held at that price. January ribs opened unchanged at $6.25.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—Nov., 70⅜c; Dec., 70⅞@71c; Jan., 71⅜@71⅝c.

Corn—Nov., 41½c; Dec., 35½c; Jan., 34½@34¾c; May, 35⅞c.

Oats—Nov., 21½c; Dec., 21⅞c; May, 23⅞@24c.

Pork—Nov., $11.00; Dec., $11.00; Jan., $11.75; May, $11.72½.

Lard—Nov., $7.20; Dec., $7.00; Jan., $6.87½@6.90; May, $6.90@6.92½.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Nov. 20.—The tone of the stock market in the opening dealings was exceedingly irregular, different stocks, even in the same group, moving in contrary directions. Business was large and widely distributed, but changes did not reach a point except in a very few cases.

Brooklyn Transit, Northern Pacific, Great Northern preferred, Union Pacific and Steel and Wire preferred were among those showing gains of about a point.

Trading was very confused and largely manipulative. Support was extended to special stocks under cover of which large sales were made in others. The weakest features were American Linseed Oil preferred, Steel Hoop preferred, Tennessee Coal and People's Gas, which lost 1¼@3½, the first the chief sufferer.

By 10:30 the speculation became more settled and the most active stocks were inclined to follow the lead of Northern Pacific, which rose to 60⅝. Great Northern preferred rose 3. Purchases to cover shorts benefited the Steel group, People's Gas and the Tractions from 1 to 2¼ points, and a few of the railroads rose over last night. North American became active and advanced 1½.

Orders to sell on the rise in the Steel group stimulated a bear attack and the group reacted sharply, dragging the general market along. Dullness then developed, and as pressure relaxed prices of some stocks hardened slightly.

Bonds were rather quiet and easier.

FAMOUS RECLUSE DIES.

Brookville, Ind., Nov. 20.—Miss Phoebe Meeks, the famous recluse, is dead at her home here, aged 85. Sixty years ago she was disappointed in love and she made a resolution to cut herself off from the world. So far as known, from that day she never left her house and, notwithstanding there is a railroad within 100 yards of her home, she absolutely refused to look at the cars. The windows and doors on the ground floor of the little brick house were closed, and the only communication Miss Meek held with the outside world during recent years was through a small aperature in one of the doors where the necessaries of life were passed in by a woman employed by the recluse.

A number of out-of-town friends have arrived to be present at the ceremony.

ONE WOMAN'S LIFE WORK.

The celebrated Bon Marche of Paris was the life work of a woman, the justly famous Madame Boucicault, and it was literally the first emporium of the kind ever seen. Madame Boucicault was a woman possessed of a great heart as well as of a great brain, and her business owed not a little of its monetary success to the fact that it was conducted by her on really co-operative principles. Each of her shopmen and shopwomen, as well, of course, as all those concerned with the purely clerical side of the business, was admitted by her to a share in the profits.

Not content with doing this, she further established in connection with her employes homes of rest, holiday homes, a hospital, and an annuity fund, and at her death it was found that she had divided her vast fortune among her workers, the sum left in each case being carfeully graduated according to the time the legatee had been in the service of the Bon Marche. The beneficent and kindly spirit of Madame Boucicault seems even now to exercise a good influence on those employed in the huge shop, and the passing visitor is treated with exceptionally kind consideration, no attempt being made to compel a purchase, while with unwearied good nature both the shopmen and shopwomen will show everything that is to be seen, betraying no disappointment if the practical result is for the moment nil.—London Telegraph.

Boys' Reefers...

To please both mother and the boy. Boys' tastes do not always harmonize with their mothers'. It has been our constant study to bring both together, and we think we have solved the difficulty by showing a garment a little longer than the usual Reefer, a little more stylish, with a storm collar, such as has always been put on Ulsters—thus giving the boy ample protection around the neck and ears. We have them in Chinchillas—blue, brown and Oxfords—also in Friezes, at prices ranging from

$1.50 to $6.00

There is no garment a boy can wear to as good advantage as a Reefer. It takes the place of an Overcoat and does not interfere with his playing—as it is not cumbersome like an ulster.

ADVANCING WAGES

TELEGRAPHERS RECIPIENTS OF AN INCREASE.

SEVERAL UNFORTUNATE MEN

JOHN J. LYNCH HAD HIS TOES MASHED YESTERDAY.

MR. SPANLEY IN HOSPITAL

WILL HAVE LAME KNEE OPERATED UPON.

A telegram from Detroit states that the Michigan Central railroad has made an advance of 15 per cent in the wages of its telegraph operators, the increase to become effective at once. The Indianapolis Journal this morning contains the following items:

"A surprise awaits the telegraphers in the general offices of the Big Four at Indianapolis and Cincinnati. On next pay day the telegraphers in these offices who have been receiving $50 per month from this time on, including November, will be paid $55; those now paid $54 will receive $60, and those now receiving $63 will get $70. The pay rolls bearing out the above statement were made out yesterday at the general offices in Indianapolis."

A few days ago The Sentinel mentioned the fact that some of the western roads had promised an increase in the wages of the men who fire the big engines. It is quite probable that other advances will occur on other roads if the present favorable traffic conditions continue or give promise of continuing throughout the coming year.

MORE TIME-TABLE TALK.

The new time card on the Fort Wayne road, to be placed in effect next Sunday, may be a radical change over the time card now in effect, though yesterday it was announced that very little change would occur. The latest concerning it, which is not official, is that the milk train which runs between Valparaiso and Chicago and which also carries passengers, may be discontinued and No. 37, the accommodation which leaves this city at 7:10, will pick up milk on the west end of its trip. If this change is made other changes will occur, included being a new train, which will reduce the running time between Pittsburg and Chicago about an hour. This was the situation at noon today, but, as stated, there was nothing definitely decided at that hour. Another train will be a welcome addition to the service, which is already the best the company ever gave the public. There are now eight trains each way out of this city. The abandonment of the Chicago milk train, No. 49, would, of course, not affect the service on this part of the line.

MARRIED THIS MORNING.

Miss Flora Polhamus, daughter of A. H. Polhamus, former road foreman of engines of the Pittsburg railroad, this morning became the bride of Harley Brockus, a moulder in the Bass shops. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. L. L. Henson at the Baptist parsonage at 9 o'clock, in the presence of the relatives of the young couple. After the wedding, an elaborate repast was served at the home of the bride, and later Mr. and Mrs. Brockus left on a short wedding tour.

SOLUTION OF CAR FAMINE.

What is needed in this country is the adoption of a plan that will permit, within certain defined limits, the use of all cars wherever needed, says the Railway Review. Put into other words, the car equipment of the different sections of the country should be pooled. No small loss is occasioned by the enforced handling of empty cars on their return to "home" roads, something that would be largely overcome if every car was "at home" wherever it might happen to be. Such a pool or clearing house might follow one of a dozen different outlines, either of which would be infinitely superior to the present method of handling cars, and it would not take a long time under the management of an efficient car distributer to work out the plan best adapted to accomplish the desired result.

In order to illustrate the strength of the above argument, to-wit: That the adoption of the "at home" plan for all cars wherever located would result in adding to the available equipment of the road, reference is had to the latest report on car movement of one of the large systems. It shows that the total movement of "home" cars on its own line averaged 31.51 miles per day, while the movement of "home" cars on foreign lines averaged 18.97 miles per day; the movement of the total equipment of the system being 28.63 miles per day, and the percentage of loaded mileage 71.35. It is undoubtedly true that with proper handling under a clearing house system, the mileage per car could be greatly increased and the percentage of empty movement materially decreased. It is not too much to say that by such a scheme at least 10 per cent would be added to the effective equipment of the country, an amount that would be ample to relieve the pressure during the period of congested movement.

CONTRACTS WERE LET.

Two important ontracts for work on the big addition at the state institute were let on Monday afternoon. The Fort Wayne Iron works secured the contract for the steel trusses and the Seavey Hardware company were awarded the contract for the galvanized iron and slate for the building.

BUSINESS GOOD EAST.

Mr. R. J. Fisher has returned from an eastern trip in the interest of the Bass Foundry and Machine shop. He reports business booming and a big demand for foundry products, especially car supplies and wheels. While in Pennsylvania Mr. Fisher visited the Pressed Steel Car company. That firm has orders calling for cars to the aggregate of 15,000, included being 750 for the Fort Wayne road. Mr. Fisher is of the opinion that business in his line will be better next year than it ever was.

WILL SUBMIT TO OPERATION.

Peter Spanley, Pennsylvania company patrolman, went to St. Joseph hospital last evening for an operation for a fractured knee cap. The injury was sustained eighteen months ago and has been a source of great inconvenience and much pain to Mr. Spanley ever since. The knee cap will be scraped and wired with silver wires, in the hope that the fractured parts will knit together and recover. Mr. Spanley's numerous friends sincerely hope that the operation will be all that is expected from it and that he may soon be as well as ever.

TWO TOES CRUSHED.

John J. Lynch, a plumber employed in the Pittsburg shops, had two toes of his right foot badly bruised yesterday afternoon and was taken to his home on Brandriff street, where he will probably be confined for several days. The toes were injured by a smoke box brace, a piece of iron four or five feet long and weighing forty or fifty pounds, falling upon them. Dr. E. J. McOscar is attending the unfortunate man.

TAKEN TO PLYMOUTH.

The remains of Austin Millerman, the switchman who was killed in the Pittsburg yards yesterday, were taken to Plymouth early this morning, first being prepared for burial by J. C. Peltier. The young man was twenty-one years old and he had worked in the yards in this city since October 15.

BLACKSMITH CELEBRATES.

Andrew Ryan, the well-known blacksmith at the Pittsburg shops, and his wife entertained last evening in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding day. There were thirty or forty of their friends and relatives present. Supper was served at 6 o'clock and then came an evening of pleasure rarely equaled. Music and cards figured prominently in the amusements. At a convenient hour the guests called before them Mr. and Mrs. Ryan and presented them with some very appropriate tokens of their esteem. Included in the presents was a fine sideboard. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan reside at 36 Brandriff street.

A telegram this morning informed C. W. Habecker that his father was lying at the point of death in Monticello, Ind., and he immediately left for that city. C. W. Habecker is a painter in the Pennsylvania shops.

When George Barbour, machinist at the Pittsburg shops, went home last night, he found there two bushels of peanuts. He had a bet with a friend on the result of the election and the peanuts were in payment of that debt.

The Indianapolis Journal yesterday stated that Frank W. Morse, general superintendent of motive power of the Grand Trunk, would follow C. M. Hays to the Southern Pacific. A change of this kind will not greatly surprise Mr. Morse's Fort Wayne friends. He possesses the attributes of a first-class motive power superintendent and nobody is more cognizant of this fact than Mr. Hays, with whom Mr. Morse has been for the past five years.

The Pennsylvania railroad department of the Young Men's Christian association Sunday celebrated its seventeenth anniversary at Pitcairn. Addresses were made by a number of officials of the Pennsylvania lines.

Passenger Conductor A. E. Urbahns has resumed work on the Nickel Plate. He returned from northern Michigan Saturday, where he spent a week hunting. Included in the game "bagged" by him were five deers and a porcupine.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McGee, who has been quite ill with diphtheria, has about recovered and quarantine was lifted from the premises today. Friendship lodge, No. 70, International Association of Machinists, will hold a meeting this evening and a full attendance is desired. The lodge has been unable to meet for several weeks, because of the lack of a quorum, the members being interested in political matters. Now that the election is over, an effort to increase the membership of the order will be taken up.

Clyde U. Hench and Harry Beaston today began an apprenticeship in the Wabash shops. They are bright young fellows, with "staying" qualities, and The Sentinel predicts a distinguished career for each. Mr. Hench is a son of Councilman G. R. Hench, of the First ward, and Mr. Beaston is a grandson of Engineer Beaston, who was employed for a number of years on the Pittsburg road.

The Pittsburg round house has quite a lengthy absentee list today, some of the men being sick and others off duty to attend a funeral or for other purposes. Included in the absentees are E. J. Ryan, J. Bossier, L. Krob, W. Miller, G. Iby and F. Lindemuth. Engine 649, the big new passenger flyer now passing through a series of tests on the Fort Wayne road, is performing very satisfactorily and has several very remarkable runs to her credit. Last night this mammoth engine hauled No. 9 ten miles at the rate of seventy miles an hour. The train consisted of seven cars, including the dynamometer car, in which was Assistant Road Foreman E. D. McDonald, taking notes of the speed and pull on the draw bars. Engineer J. C. McCarthy was at the throttle. No. 649 has eighty inch drive wheels.

Next year promises to be a record-breaker in the way of railway improvements and construction. Several new routes, including one or more trans-continental lines, will come into existence and many of the old lines will expend great sums in double tracking, extensions and betterments to an extent never before undertaken. In the probabilities of the coming year might be mentioned the extension of the Rock Island to El Paso, to make a through connection with the Southern Pacific; the Fort Wayne and Butler road, connecting the main line and the Detroit division; the Burlington extension in two directions to the Pacific, and the building of branch lines by the Milwaukee and St. Paul and the Northwestern. Other roads will pursue the same policy, so that the railway mileage of the country will be increased during the year by several thousand miles.

THE PREPARATIONS

for a nice dinner should include an inventory of your stock of tin, granite and iron ware, for nothing can be more annoying than to have preparations for a dainty on the way, and find that you have no suitable vessel in which to cook it.

Our little GRANITE and ENAMELED KETTLES and PANS are light convenient and just the thing for sauces and little stews. Our line shows all kinds and sizes of ware for all purposes, including the celebrated Vollrath Ware, for which we are sole agents in this city. Call and give it a critical inspection. It will stand it.
